Man in Black

The fact that he recognises his own legend in an autobiographical song such as "Man In Black" sets him apart from many performers, although the technique is somewhat more common in country music. "Man In Black" is a terrific song with Cash attempting to explain why he dresses in black.

Man in Black (song)

"Man in Black" (or "The Man in Black") is a protest song written and recorded by singer-songwriter Johnny Cash, originally released on his 1971 album of the same name. Cash himself was known as "The Man in Black" for his distinctive style of on-stage costuming.
